Re: Montes, et al. v. Tularcito Deli, LLC, et al.
 Case No. 18 Civ. 11613-LGS

Dear Judge Lehrburger:

I received the Court's Order to have Mr. Bravo present on December 3rd regarding the settlement.

Two important facts – Firstly, my office is relocating on December 2nd and 3rd. All our files and furniture will be in transit and be unpacked over those two days and, for the most part, that week.

Secondly, Mr. Bravo has been desperately looking for a job to care for his family. He has taken a job where the airlines require training in Houston where he is now. I hope to reach him but, as of today, it is a problem.

The first week of December is absolutely impossible for me due to the fact that my office is moving. I do want to meet and try and reach Mr. Bravo as well. My available dates in December are as follows: 10th; 12th; 16th; 17th; 19th.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/Stephen D. Hans

I have not heard from him. As of today, I emailed him and called him. His voicemail was on and there was no reply to my emails. I believe he wants and will settle this case. I also think his quest for employment is consuming his attention. I believe he will contact me but obviously the Plaintiff is understandably concerned.

I received a call from Mr. Bravo today and he informed me that he would be returning to New York next week. He promised to be in my office next Wednesday.

I will keep the Court and the Plaintiff's counsel informed accordingly.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/Stephen D. Hans
